

Mrs. J. W. Burgess Entertains

Mrs. J. W. Burgess invited the Colonial Country Club and a few guests to meet Mrs. Alexander and her daughter, Miss Alexander, of Kentucky, and Mrs. Beaumont Saturday at 12 o'clock.

Luncheon was served at 2 o'clock.

These guests were seated at a table beautifully decorated with roses and honeysuckle: Mesdames Clough, Van Zandt, Morgan, Skinner, Herd, J. J. Jarvis, Tevis, Ryan, Harrison, Mitchell, Beaumont, Floy King Burgess, Stuart Harrison, C. G. Jarvis, Rhome, W. W. Burgess, Duke Burgess and J. I. Burgess; Misses Innes Burgess, Helma Smith and Sallie Belle McCart.

Mrs. Ben O. Smith entertained her mother, Mrs. Portwood, and friends, Mesdames Labban and Richardson, with a box party at the song festival this afternoon.

Invitations have been received in Fort Worth from the senior class of Emerson College of Oratory, Boston, to the exercises of commencement week, May 6 to 10, 1907, Chickering hall.

Fort Worth is represented in this class by Miss Mary Louise Thompson, one of our beautiful and talented girls, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson. Mrs. Thompson is in Boston for these exercises.

Society Personals

Willis Stewart is home from A. and M. for a few days.

Mrs. R. S. Holmes of Bolton is a guest in Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. William Caldwell of La Grange are guests in the city during the song festival.

Miss Mary Cartwright of Terrell will arrive this week for a visit with Miss Mary Wortham.

Miss Katherine Williamson leaves Wednesday for an extended visit in Nashville, Tenn.

Miss Cruger of Austin and Miss Autrey of Waco are visiting Mrs. Howard Tully.

Mrs. S. T. Moore of Houston arrived this morning to be the guest of Mrs. Carrie Stewart during the song festival.

Mrs. H. O. Head of Sherman, who was expected to be the guest of Mrs. Bacon Saunders during the song festival, has been detained on account of illness in her family.