AT THE COURT HOUSE.

There was little business done in the Circuit Court yesterday. In the case of Mrs. Christian against the city, exceptions were filed to the deposition of Dr. Thomas H. Kinnaird.

Michael Neal was granted a divorce from Susan Neal.

In the case of Maria Burkes against A. B. Hawkins for trespass, a jury gave a verdict for the defendant.

New Suits.

The following suits were filed yesterday in the Circuit Clerk's office:

Colonial Carriage Company against B. B. and A. P. Wilson, to recover upon a note for $250

Mary Foster sues Granville Foster for divorce, on the ground of abandonment.

The O. Ormleder Company sues B. B. Wilson and A. P. Wilson on account for $652.65.

County Court Orders.

John Bottger took out his naturalization papers.

The estate of Alice Wilson was committed to the hands of George C. Morgan, public administrator.

Real Estate Transfers.

Joseph Dinelli to Sarah Miller, for $515, a house and lot on Willard street.

Eric Bergland, Lucy Bergland, W. C. McFarland and Addie McFarland to D. F. Frazee, for $7,500, a house and lot on East High street.

James E. Burgess, etc., to Maggie A. Pritchett, for $4,500, forty acres of land.

E. G. and Sarah G. Farley to Nannie C. Dillard, for $1,400, a house and lot on East End avenue.

William A. Jones, etc., to Mary C. Wehrle for one dollar and other considerations, fifteen acres on the Richmond pike.

James P. Jones, etc., to John T. Jones, partition of estate.

Wm. H. Jones, etc., to James P. Jones, etc., partition of estate.

James P. Jones, etc., to Wm. H. Jones, etc., partition of estate.