

Brief Items of Interest in City

Everything. Veihl-Crawford Hdw. Co.*

The Orpheum Picture Show, 1511 Main street. A refined picture show for refined people. *

Drumm's for cut flowers. We have three phones in our store. They are never all busy. *

Mrs. William H. King of Harrington avenue entertained the following guests last week: Mr. D. Hale and Mr. O. H. Gibson of Stamford, Mr. T. W. Caskey of Wichita Falls, Messrs. S. R. Cox and K. M. Knight of Abilene, Mrs. W. H. Scott and daughter, Louise, of Merkel, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Horn of Waco and Mr. and Mrs. James E. Burgess of Haslet.

Miss Ghent has returned from an extended trip through Florida, and has opened dressmaking rooms with Mrs. Roberts in the Touraine building, room 16. Phone Lamar 7209. *

Miss Ludie Orth, en route to her home in Wichita Falls from San Antonio, spent Sunday and Monday with Miss Lee Miller of Peter Smith street.

Under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, Billy Williams of San Jose, Cal., will deliver a free lecture to the young men of the city on "Evil Habits," at the Odeon theater Sunday afternoon. Mr. Williams is known as the "Drummer Evangelist," having for a number of years at one time been a shoe drummer.

Permission to consolidate the Arwine and Isham school districts, in order to erect a modern school building and pay adequate salaries for teachers and secure a longer term, was granted by the county commissioners Monday afternoon. The consolidation was strongly urged by Superintendent Hammond. Patrons of the district will ask for a bond election soon to provide for a new building, which will likely be erected at Hurs'.

An entertainment was given Monday night, complimentary to the members of the First Methodist Church, by the faculty members of the school of fine arts of the Polytechnic College. A large audience filled the church building.

Marcus Snyder, a cattleman of Colorado City, in Fort Worth Monday purchased from T. C. Dever of Alice 650 head of cows, 3 to 5 years old, at a price of $25 per head. The cattle will be shipped to the Snyder ranch in the Osage Nation, Oklahoma, May 1.

The Fraternal Aid Society will meet in special session Wednesday afternoon in Moose hall, Fourteenth and Houston streets. A delegation of visitors from Houston will be present, and all local members are urged to attend.

Robert C. Herget, 59, died of heart failure at his residence on Pecan street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock. Mr. Herget has just arisen from bed and had gone into the kitchen, when he fell dead. Herget was born in Paluen, Germany, and had been a resident of Fort Worth twenty-nine years. For several years he had been cook at Mason's restaurant. He is survived by his wife, a son, Carl Herget, and two daughters. Justice Peden held the inquest, returning a verdict of death due to heart failure.

Brittain R. Webb has sold his residence, 1642 South Adams street, to L. D. Schifflett.

Leonard M. Levy, for two years with the legal firm of Smith, Turner & Bradley, has opened an office for general practice of law in the Byers building.