At Weatherford.

Weatherford, Tex., June 9.—The largest audience ever assembled to witness the closing exercises of the Texas female seminary gathered in the chapel last night. The exercises were conducted by the graduating class, at the close of which Miss McClure, the president, presented the following certificates of graduation: The degree of M. S. to Misses Oia Bell Woods, Edyth Lola McCallum, Minnie Florence Newbery, Lila Maude Crossett, Maggie Bounds Sisk, and M. A. to Miss Sue Taylor. Then the class song, which was composed by Miss Minnie Newbery, was sung by the class. Mr. Rushing of Baird, president of the board of trustees, delivered a short but very impressive talk, announcing that the board re-elected as president for the ensuing year Miss Emma McClure, giving her full power to select her own faculty. The speaker in behalf of the board paid a high compliment to the president and faculty for the grand work that had been done this year. Immediately on adjournment of the exercises the annual reception in honor of the graduating class was had in the parlors of the dormitory.

At Weatherford college the commencement exercises are well attended both in the day and at night. The different classes have contested for the gold medals, which will be presented to the winner at the close of the exercises to-night. Rev. E. D. Mounzon of Fort Worth delivered the baccalaureate address at 11 o'clock this morning. The board of trustees met this afternoon and the newly elected officers and faculty for the ensuing year will be given out to-night.
