

Reception Follows Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Nancy Alexander to Mr. Simon Peter Forman, formerly of Miami, was performed last night at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Van Zandt Jarvis of Jarvis Heights. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Guy Perry of Corpus Christi and a niece of Mrs. Jarvis.

The ceremony was read by Rev. H. O. Malone of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, the improvised altar being banked with palms, ferns and chrysanthemums and lighted by cathedral tapers.

The wedding march and soft music during the ceremony were played by Miss Claire Caldwell, violinist, accompanied by Mrs. Ann Miller, who also accompanied Mrs. C. C. Davis, singing "At Dawning." The bride and groom entered together and were unattended. She wore a model of blue crepe fashioned on long lines and adorned with an old-lace collar. She wore harmonizing accessories and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies.

An informal reception, attended by 100 guests, followed the wedding. The large wedding cake, decorated with pink and white, centered the lace-covered table where tapers in pink and white burned in silver candelabra.

Misses Maudallen Young, Virginia Hodgson, Jane, Priscilla and Mary Jarvis assisted in serving in the dining room.

Mr. and Mrs. Forman left for a short wedding trip to Corpus Christi, after which they will return to Fort Worth to make their home.

Reception Followed Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Nancy Alexander to Mr. Simon Peter Forman, formerly of Miami, was performed last night at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Van Zandt Jarvis of Jarvis Heights. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Guy Perry of Corpus Christi and a niece of Mrs. Jarvis.

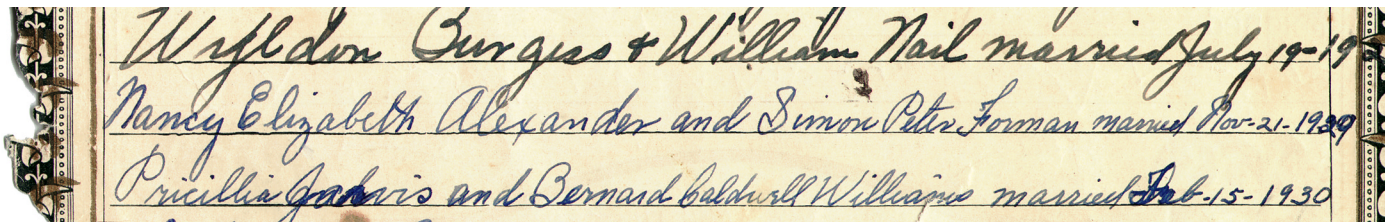

The ceremony was read by Rev. H. O. Malone of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, the improvised altar being banked with palms, ferns and chrysanthemums and lighted by cathedral tapers.

The wedding march and soft music during the ceremony were played by Miss Claire Caldwell, violinist, accompanied by Mrs. Ann Miller, who also accompanied Mrs. C. C. Davis, singing "At Dawning." The bride and groom entered together and were unattended. She wore a model of blue crepe fashioned on long lines and adorned with an old-lace collar. She wore harmonizing accessories and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies.

An informal reception, attended by 100 guests, followed the wedding. The large wedding cake, decorated with pink and white, centered the lace-covered table where tapers in pink and white burned in silver candelabra.

Misses Maudallen Young, Virginia Hodgson, Jane, Priscilla and Mary Jarvis assisted in serving in the dining room.

Mr. and Mrs. Forman left for a short wedding trip to Corpus Christi after which they will return to Fort Worth to make their home.

Nancy Elizabeth Alexander and Simon Peter Forman married Nov. 21, 1929